

CURRICULUM VITAE

Werner Clement

Born 1941 Innsbruck
Languages: German, French, English, some Italian

Activities with reference to security economics

Member of the Scientific Advisory Board to KIRAS (the Austrian promotion programme for security research)
Author of several studies pertaining to security economics commissioned by BMVIT (the Ministry for Transport, Innovation and Technology)

Academic

1965 PhD econ, University of Economics, Vienna
1965-1970 Assistant Professor
1967 "Habilitation" in Economic Policy (Wirtschaftspolitik), Dozent
1970 Associate Professor, 1971 Full Professor Innsbruck University, Faculty of Law and Public Sciences
1973 – June 2000: Full Professor at University of Economics and Business Administration, Vienna,
Chairs of full Professorships offered (and declined) at Klagenfurt and Trier-Germany
1979 Visiting Professor and fellow at Wolfson College at Cambridge University, (UK),
1983 visiting Professor Stanford University(US), 1984 Paris-HEC, Université Paris XI,
1994 National Economic University Hanoi,
1998 Holder of the European Chair at Chulalongkorn University Bangkok,
1984 Honorary Doctorate University Paris XI
Retired from Chair at Vienna Economics University in 2000.

Some 200 Publications

Consulting, Extra-university Activities

1968-1970: Assistant to the Minister of Finance
Consultant and/or member of public institutions, advisory boards... in Austria

1986 -2003: Founder and Head of „Industrial Research Institute“, i.e. Economic Research Institute focussing on Manufacturing
Chairman of the Supervisory Board of “ecos venture capital AG”,
Member of the Supervisory board of other Ltd Companies
Consultant to a multinational (“most admired US”) pharmaceutical Company
1999 Establishment of 4C-foresee Management Consulting Comp. Ltd, Chairman
2003 Establishment (and Chairman) of IPF – Institute of Pharmaeconomic Research

Other International Activities:

Expert to the following Organisations: OECD, Council of Europe, UNIDO, World Bank, UNESCO, ILO etc.
OECD-Country Examiner of France, Sweden, US, Australia, Switzerland,
1993/94 Consultant to the Minister of Planning (in the area of competitiveness and industrial policy), Hanoi Viet Nam, Elaboration of the Masterplan for Mechanical Engineering in Viet Nam,
1995 Member of the „Leadership Program on Japan“, MITI
1994 - 2002: Co-operation with CIEM (Central Institute for Economic Management) Hanoi