

CURRICULUM VITAE

Detlef Nogala

Dr. Detlef Nogala joined CEPOL as Research and Knowledge Management Officer in February 2007, although he worked with CEPOL as a Research Adviser from 2004 until 2006.

His main responsibilities include collecting research findings and good practices within the Police, Universities and Institutes related to Police matters and disseminating research findings and good practices to the national police colleges and the organisers of CEPOL courses and seminars.

He is also the Secretary to Research and Science Working Group and the contact point for the National CEPOL e-Doc Correspondents and National EPLN Coordinators.

He works on the research database developed in cooperation with the Max Planck Institute and supports the implementation of the databases within the CEPOL courses and seminars.